GERMANY'S

Foreign Secretary Hopes There Will Be No Conflict With America

REGRETS WILSON'S ACTION

Appreciates Words of Non-Hostile Character In the President's Address to the Senate and Joins In Wish That Hostilities May Be Avoided—Has Only Press Reports

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

London, Feb. 6, 2:55 p. m.— A wireless dispatch received here today quoted the Overseas News Agency of Berlin to the effect that Foreign Secretary Zimmerman declared in an interview that Germany joined with President Wilson in the wish that there may be no conflict and that the German government, after minute examination of the president's speech to congress appreciates "those words of a non-hostile character."

REGRETS THIS MEASURE.

Berlin, Sunday, Feb. 4.—(Wireless to Sayville, delayed.)—Although late this afternoon no official confirmation had reached Berlin that relations with the United States had been broken off, the text of President Wilson's address to congress removed all doubt in the minds of the general public as well as in the official world as to the accuracy of earlier private information. Foreign Secretary Zimmerman made the following statement to the Overseas News Agency:

"We regret this measure taken by President Wilson, all the more since, against all traditions and all international law we are cut off from all direct communication and regular intercourse with the trans-Atlantic world. We also remember that American diplomats during the last months and years of the war have cared for German interests by proxy, in several hostile countries with efficiency and great success.

"The text of the president's message, in the absence of other official documents has therefore been examined most minutely. Having no real reason for hostility to the United States, remembering the true friendship which has existed between the countries practically from the first days of the United States, we naturally appreciate the words of a rather non-hostile character which, among others of a different character are found in that message as transmitted by Reuters. In them President Wilson gives assurances that he wishes no 'hostile conflict' with Germany, and I can add that we appreciate this and other paragraphs in the message joining in this respect with President Wilson's note.

"While we think to a certain extent that we can see by what reasons the United States government was prompted to its present attitude on the other hand we expect that President Wilson to the same extent may recognize the reasons which prompted us to take our decision."

COURTESY TO AMERICANS.

Berlin, Monday, Feb. 5, via London, Feb. 6.—Whatever may be their feelings toward the United States Germans in Berlin and, as far as has been heard outside the capital, have manifested consideration and courtesy toward Americans since the news was received of the breaking off of diplomatic relations. Aside from an occasional frank comment on the action of the American government, no acts of a hostile or even an unfriendly nature have been reported thus far and many Germans are going out of their way to show a friendly disposition toward Americans marooned here.

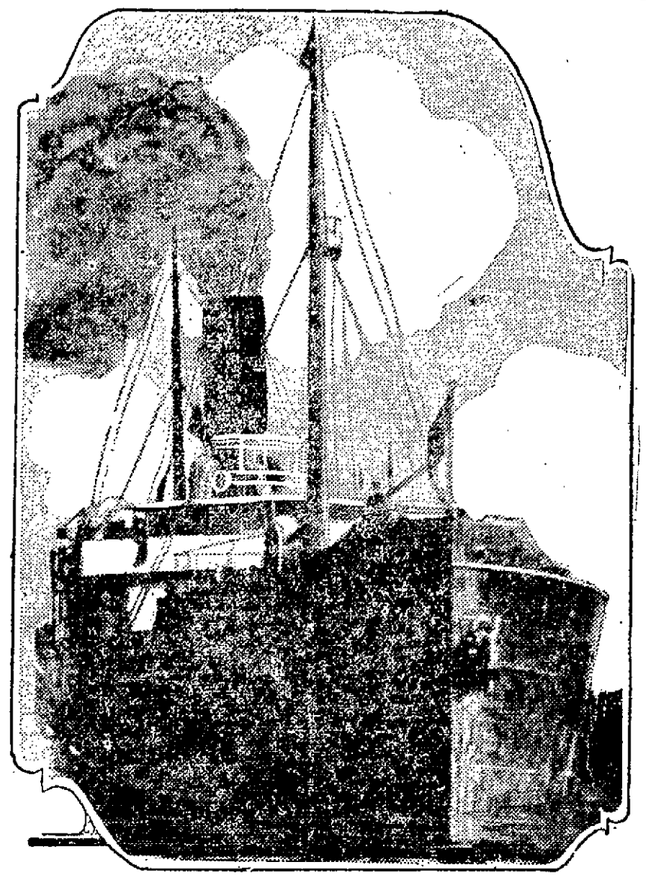

The only difficulty which has been reported thus far has been at one district headquarters of police headquarters of police which is charged with viseing passports to go abroad Officials of the passport department refused to vise passports until the holders were able to show a steamer ticket to America. On the other hand the police in the main residential are accepting "return to America" as an adequate reason for departure, but are insisting that the customary interval of a fortnight for military investigation of the application cannot be waived. The foreign office, to which the American newspaper correspondents in a way are accredited has shown every disposition to facilitate the departure of such correspondents as wish to leave with Ambassador Gerard, expediting the formalities for the immediate departure of such families as are leaving immediately. The foreign office has expressed the desire to have as many American correspondents as possible remain after the departure of the ambassador, in order to maintain unofficial relations between the two peoples as long as war is avoided.

The remark of a German woman to an American woman, a stranger to her, who happened to be standing in the same food line this morning, "We want to show that we are not barbarians,"—apparently is the keynote with a vast majority of Germans.

SINKING OF AN AMERICAN VESSEL BY GERMAN U-BOAT BRINGS CLASH NEARER

The sinking of the American steamer Housatonic for a time threatened to develop the situation which might bring about hostilities with Germany but the report of the captain that he was given warning as required by international law cleared the situation.

"NO THREAT CAN FRIGHTEN US," SAY BERLIN EDITORS

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Berlin, Feb. 5, via London, Feb. 6.—The general opinion expressed by the Berlin papers on the German-American situation is that President Wilson has failed to grasp the real significance of affairs in Europe and has misinterpreted Germany's position and intentions. The Lokal Anzeiger says:

"President Wilson has failed to judge the situation from the lofty heights of non-partisanship and is unwilling to co-operate in preventing further misery and sacrifice. He has shut his eyes to all the motives which, after mature deliberation caused Germany to employ the most effective weapon in her power against the most inhuman of her enemies."

The Lokal Anzeiger then speaks of President Wilson's "apparent unwillingness to believe that Germany will do what she said," and adds:

"It is scarcely believable that President Wilson does not believe in the seriousness of our decision. If he really expects that we will draw back, if he believes that the breach of diplomatic relations will cause us to change our mind, he embraces an error which may have the most dangerous consequences."

The Anzeiger says that Germany's step was taken after all possible consequences had been duly weighed and that "therefore no threat can frighten us."

The paper concludes with a reference to the president's message to the senate in view of which it says that it is "unwilling to believe that President Wilson wants to participate in a war which is explicitedly waged for the destruction of the German people."

No surprise at the turn of events is expressed by the Tageblatt in which Theodor Wolff writes a colorless and passionless leader. Referring to President Wilson's expressed hope that other neutrals will follow the lead of the United States, Herr Wolf remarks "European neutrals probably do not view things in quite the same light as Mr. Wilson. They are not separated by the ocean from the arena of war and they have had the miseries of war before their doors for thirty-one months. They also know better how Germany is inspired with power and tenacity of will. We have always declined to participate in the frivolous manner in which others have underestimated America, but whoever under estimates the defensive power of the German people must be smitten with quite a different kind of blindness."

George Bernhard, writing in the Vossiche Zeitung adopts the same line as the Lokal Anziger. "President Wilson," he says, "is unwilling to believe that Germany will do what she says. This time there is no backward step for Germany. It is doubly necessary therefore that the clearness of the distinction between right and wrong before all the world," Herr Bernhard says that Germany's submarine policy as announced a year ago, was based on President Wilson changed in February the principle announced in January.

BRITISH LOSE HEAVILY.

Berlin, Feb. 6.—The British lost at least 2,000 men in killed in their attack on the Turkish lines south of the Tigris near Kut-el-Amar on Feb 1, Turkish army headquarters announces in its report of Feb. 2. The attack was a failure the statement says.

NEUTRALS IN EUROPE AVOID FINAL RUPTURE

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

London, Feb. 6.—The attitude of European neutrals in regard to the American suggestion that they break off diplomatic relations with Germany is being awaited with keen interest but a canvass of the diplomatic representatives of these nations showed there was a general disposition to take time for consideration of the suggestion. Notwithstanding reports that Spain has taken action, the Spanish ambassador, Senor Merry Del Val, who is being kept advised by his government, had not received word up to noon today of any measures taken by Spain.

There are some indications already that Spain does not contemplate a rupture. They include the taking up of part of the Belgian relief work which the American rupture with Germany is deranging. It has not been expected by entente diplomats that Switzerland would take action which might involve her in the war, inasmuch as her frontiers would be exposed on three sides.

At the Scandinavian legations the general view, in the absence of definite advices, was that the exposed Baltic frontages of these countries made their situation much more dangerous than that of America, which would tend to restrain them from any decisive action.

As a result of this attitude on the part of the various European neutrals, the best informed entente diplomats are inclined to believe that the American move will not be followed by these nations, although it is expected to exert strong moral influence on them.

The passage of the Blauser bill was conceded in the house although a fight was to be made upon it. The passage of the bill is not so certain in the senate.

The senate was to be called upon this afternoon to vote on the Holden resolution to submit the question of a constitutional amendment giving women of Ohio full suffrage. Twenty three votes were required to adopt the resolution.

SWITZERLAND WILL NOT BREAK WITH GERMANY

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Washington, Feb. 6.—Information that Switzerland will not adopt President Wison's suggestion, that, in the interest of world peace, other neutrals follow the lead of the United States and break off diplomatic relations with Germany, was received here today. So far as is known this is the first response.

Spain's taking over of American interests in Germany and Switzerland's similar action for German interests here are interpreted as removing both these neutrals from participation in the break in relations.

Spanish Ambassador Riano who conferred with state department officials today, said he had advices that Spain's answer to the German notification would be made public today or tomorrow, but that he did not know its contents. He intimated it was doubtful if Spain would formally reply to President Wilson's note to neutrals, as her taking over of American interests in Germany indicated that no matter how seriously she might protest Germany's action she would not as yet sever diplomatic relations.

Spain is the largest neutral now absolutely free from entanglement in the world war and is by far the best equipped diplomatically to serve as an intermediary between the belligerents groups. The practical certainty that an American break with Austria also cannot be avoided makes it more desirable than ever that Spain should remain outside the struggle.

GERMANY WILL PROTECT BELGIAN RELIEF WORKERS

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

London, Feb. 6.—If it becomes necessary to withdraw the American relief workers in Belgium and Northern France they will receive protection from the German government and will be permitted to depart without molestation. Information to this effect was received in a telegram addressed to the local office of the Belgian relief commission from Brand Whitlock, the American minister to Belgium, who has been given the assurance by the German authorities at Brussels.

An official of the Belgian relief committee is quoted by the London Express as saying that every relief ship is now being held up and that if the steamers are held many days longer the Belgians and French in the territories occupied by the Germans probably will be starved.

The official added that the Spanish ambassador at Berlin was making representations to the German government with the object of having respected the previous guarantees regarding relief ships.

TENSION

PREPARATIONS CONTINUE

Real Test of Germany's Intentions Will Come In Actual Performance of Her Campaign Against Sea Commerce—No Disposition to Recede From Position Taken By America

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Washington, Feb. 6.—Germany's disposition to regard the break with the United States with calmness and deliberation and in a peaceful spirit, as expressed by Foreign Minister Zimmermann, brings new encouragement to those who hope the breach between the two countries will go no further than a severance of diplomatic relations.

The real test, however, comes on the actual performance of the campaign of unrestricted submarine warfare and while all American officials fervently share the hope that the break will go no further, there is no disposition to recede from the position that American lives and rights will be protected by whatever measures are necessary.

The work of preparing for eventualities went steadily forward today in all branches of the government. Three emergency amendments to the naval bill were presented to the house by Chairman Padgett, of the naval committee, after conference with administration officials. They propose:

Issue of $150,000,000 of three per cent. five-year bonds to cover cost of quick delivery of ships and war supplies, including more submarines, destroyers and ammunition.

Appropriation of $1,000,000 for purchase of basic patents for manufacture and development of air craft.

Blanket authority to the President and secretary of the navy to order ships or war material from any plant within the limits of appropriations; to take ossession of any plants that refuse to give the government precedure and to draft employes of private plants into the naval establishment.

The war department put its quartermasters agents into the markets to bring reserve stores up to the maximum supply at once.

CONFERENCE OF NEUTRAL NATIONS BEING DISCUSSED

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Washington, Dec. 6.—With prospects for another day of waiting for developments of the ruthless submarine campaign that may bring war between the United States and Germany, immediate interest here centered today upon the destruction of the British steamer Eavestone, in which an American seaman lost his life. Apparently officials are confident that this incident will not prove to be the overt act that will cause hostilities but nevertheless complete reports are awaited with grave anxiety.

Earlier in the war the state department received several similar reports of the shelling of vessels by submarines and the injury of passengers or crew in life boats but in each instance lead to the conclusion that the vessels were resisting or trying to escape. If this is found to be the case with the Eavestone, the act will not be regarded as illegal.

Meanwhile a conference of neutral nations is being discussed, on suggestion of one of the European neutrals most severely affected by the war, and although it is believed the idea has been duly received by President Wilson, there is no definite indication that the plan will mature.

Relations with Austria are not on sound foundation, owing to the known adherence of the dual monarchy to Germany's submarine war program, but certain differences in her announced intentions make it uncertain just what the United States government may decide to do.

The senate today was ready to adopt a resolution endorsing the president's action in breaking relations with Germany and the house is expected to place itself on record in a similar way.

The war and navy departments continued to formulate plans for mobilization of industrial and commercial forces, as well as military, so that these might be placed in operation under government direction on short orders. The navy department issued a list of manufacturing companies which have offered their services in case of war. Appropriation measures and bills to clear a legal path for freer and speedier action by army and navy agencies were given close attention in both houses of congress.

Count Von Bernstorff, his staff and all German consuls in this country, composing a party of more than 200, will sail next Tuesday from New York on the Scandinavian liner Frederick VIII for Christina and the state department feels assured of guarantees of safe conduct for them from the allies.

64 AMERICANS RELEASED; DIDN'T KNOW KAISER'S RULE

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Washington, Feb. 6.—Official notice of the release by Germany of the 64 Americans held prisoners in Germany for having taken pay on board British armed merchantmen captured by the German sea raider was received at the state department today in a delayed dispatch from Ambassador Gerard. The prisoners were released. Germany claims because at the time of their enlistment they did not know Germany had planned to treat all armed ships as war vessels.

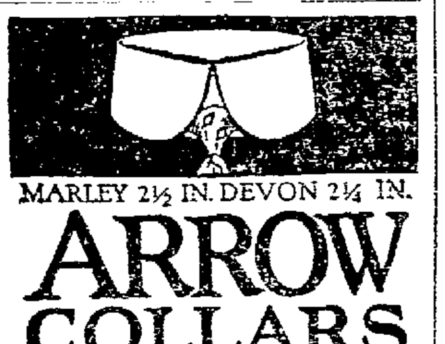

One of the last American acts before the severance of relations with Germany was the demand for immediate release of these prisoners and a most energetic protest against their original detention. Ambassador Gerard's dispatch today announcing their release appears to have been sent before he had requested his passports.

GERMAN BLOCKADE DOESN'T STOP THE SHIPMENT OF GOODS

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

New York, Feb. 6.—The German blockade declaration has not delayed the transportation of war materials and munitions from the United States to Great Britain and France. Cargo manifests in the custom house here show that five steamships now on their way from this port to Europe carry enough contraband goods to equip an army corps.

Two of these vessels fly French colors; the others are of British registry. It is believed in shipping circles that on account of the value of their cargoes Great Britain has made arrangements to convoy these ships through the danger zone. Three of them left New York after the date on which Germany declared for unrestricted submarine warfare. Four of them, the Rochambeau, for Bordeaux, the Adriatic, Carmania and Baltic for Liverpool, carry passengers.

The only two American passenger ships now at sea, according to the declaration of agents of the line carry no contraband cargo. They are the Kroonland, which sailed for Liverpool, Jan. 21 and the New York which departed from the same port February 3. The American liner St. Paul arrived here from Liverpool last night and the Philadelphia and Finland of the same line reached Liverpool yesterday.

The St. Louis of the American line detained here since Saturday on account of the international situation, will not sail before Wednesday at noon, her agents says and there is no assurance that she will get away at that time. It is understood at the office of the American line here that the question of the sailing of the St. Louis will come up before a meeting of the cabinet in Washington this afternoon. The number of her first cabin passengers has dwindled to sixty during the delay, but the passenger agents said there are several business men waiting to book passage when they hear a definite time has been fixed for the line to go.

CREW OF BELGIAN RELIEF SHIP IS STILL MISSING.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

London, Feb. 6.—Nothing is yet known regarding the fate of the crew of the Belgian relief steamer Lars Kruse, which was sunk by a torpedo mine near the Belgian coast yesterday. The ship touched at Las Palmas on January 20 and in the ordinary course would have made some British port before arriving at Rotterdam where she was due about Feb 10.

The Lara Kruse carried the flag of the Belgian relief commission and was marked as arranged by the commission with the German government. It had not received a safe conduct from Germany as such passports had been refused the relief ships by Berlin.

Rockefeller will not have to pay the state of Ohio taxes on his $31,000,000 worth of property according to a decision of the United States circuit court of appeals in Cincinnati today, when the court affirmed a ruling of the lower federal courts in favor of Mr. Rockefeller. The decision is the outcome of a suit filed in Cleveland by Cuyahoga County Treasurer P. C. O'Brien who demanded taxes from Rockefeller on the plea that he was an Ohio citizen. Rockefeller contended that he merely made his summer home in Cleveland and therefore was not a legal resident of this state but that his home was in New York.

ONLY OPERATORS LOYAL TO U. S. ALLOWED AT KEY

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Washington, Feb. 6.—Naval authorities in charge of private radio stations have been instructed to allow no operators in whose loyalty they have not entire confidence at the keys.

Under this authority a change has been made in the operating force at the Tuckerton station, it was officially stated today. Part of the work at the station has been done by civilian employes of the German company under supervision of navy censors and with some navy radio operators actually at the key. It is now ordered that only American citizens shall be accepted as operators although it still may be necessary to employ some civilians.

The new orders apply to all plants that aliens be kept away from the stations. The navy censors established as a neutrality precaution are now exercising military censorship as well with specific instructions to prevent news that might be of military value to an enemy of the United States from being sent out.

RESTING COMFORTABLY

The condition of Miss Mary Hentze remains about the same today and she seems to be resting fairly comfortably. Miss Hentze recently underwent an operation at the City hospital.

ships to foreign registry, although recommended by the shipping board before the present international crisis developed, is expected to have a highly important effect in the retention of tonnage which would be needed in case of war.

Indications in official circles are that the government will not undertake to convoy merchantmen through the proscribed war zone or to arm them for defense, although no intensive consideration of these subjects is believed to have been undertaken by government agencies. A statement on the shipping problem was being prepared today.

The burning out of a chimney at the residence of a family named Kitz Miller, 568 West Main street, caused an alarm of fire to be sent in at about 11:30 last night from box 3. The west Newark department and the ladder truck from central responded. There was no damage.

PROVEN SWAMP-ROOT AIDS WEAK KIDNEYS

The symptoms of kidney and bladder troubles are often very distressing and leave the system in a run-down condition. The kidneys seem to suffer most as almost every victim complains of lame back and urinary troubles which should not be neglected, as these danger signals often lead to dangerous kidney troubles.

Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root which soon heals and strengthens the kidneys is a splendid kidney, liver and bladder remedy, and being an herbal compound, has a gentle healing effect on the kidneys, which is almost immediately noticed in most cases by those who use it.

A trial will convince anyone who may be in need of it. Better get a bottle from your nearest drug store, and start treatment at once.

However, if you wish first to test this great preparation send ten cents to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., for a sample bottle. When writing be sure and mention The Newark Daily Advocate —Advertisement.

Resinol Soap

a friend to tender skins

Many ill-made toilet soaps contain free alkali, a harsh chemical which tends to dry and injure the skin or hair. Resinol Soap contains absolutely no free alkali and to it is added the soothing, healing Resinol medication, which doctors have used for over 20 years in treating skin troubles. Thus it comforts tender skins, and helps nature clear the complexion and keep the hair rich, lustrous and free from dandruff. Sold at all druggists' and toilet counters.

You Can't Brush Or Wash Out Dandruff

The only sure way to get rid of dandruff is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, get about four ounces of ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

Do this tonight, and by morning, most if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop at once, and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better.

You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive and never fails to do the work.

BAD BREATH

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets Get at the Cause and Remove It

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, act gently on the bowels and positively do the work.

People afflicted with bad breath find quick relief through Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. The pleasant, sugar-coated tablets are taken for bad breath by all who know them.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets act gently but firmly on the bowels and liver, stimulating them to natural action, clearing the blood and gently purifying the entire system. They do that which dangerous calomel does without any of the bad after effects.

All the benefits of nasty, sickening, griping cathartics are derived from Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets without griping, pain or any disagreeable effects.

Dr. F. M. Edwards discovered the formula after seventeen years of practice among patients afflicted with bowel and liver complaint with the attendant bad breath.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are purely a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil; you will know them by their olive color. Take one or two every night for a week and note the effect. 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

FOR A BAD COUGH

Here is a fine old-fashioned recipe for coughs, colds or catarrh trouble that has been used with great success. Get from your druggist 1 oz. of Parmint (Double Strength) about 75c worth and add to it ¼ pint of hot water and 4 oz. granulated sugar. This will make full half a pint when mixed. Take one tablespoonful 4 times a day.

No more racking your whole body with a cough. Clogged nostrils should open, air passages of your head clear up so you can breathe freely. It is easy to prepare, costs little and is pleasant to take. Anyone who has a stubborn cough, or hard cold or catarrh in any form should give this prescription a trial. T. J. Evans can supply you.

Constipation Causes Bad Skin.

A dull and pimply skin is due to a sluggish bowel movement. Correct this condition and clear your complexion with Dr. King's New Life Pills. This mild laxative taken at bedtime will assure you a full, free, non-griping movement in the morning. Drive out the dull, listless feeling resulting from overloaded intestines and sluggish liver. Get a bottle today. At all Druggists, 25c.

Council Reconsiders Bill to Increase Pay of Police; Beadle Springs a New One

Under the leadership of Sylvester H. Beadle, of the First Ward, the city council last night rescinded its action on raising the salaries of city policemen, an ordinance to that effect having been duly passed at the last preceding regular meeting on January 22, signed by the mayor and legally published.

Last night's action was taken in face of the doubt expressed by City Solicitor Norpell as to the legality of the procedure.

The cause of the action seemed to be that council was piqued at Mayor Bigbee's action in vetoing the ordinance necessary the salaries of firemen, and sought to "get even" by nullifying the effect of the police ordinance.

The Solicitor advised that the surely legal way to go about it was to repeal the police ordinance and bring the question up with the vetoed fireman's ordinance at the next regular meeting

But Beadle, who probably is the best parliamentarian in council, had another scheme, for which he found precedent in the actions and rules of procedure of former councils.

This coup was executed cleverly and the policemen will work at the old wage at least until some further action is taken.

Mr. Beadle's modus operandi was to move a reconsideration of the police ordinance which had two seconds, Seward and Adams, and all voted aye on the question. Mr. Beadle contended and President Keller upheld him, that this action put the ordinance in the position of being upon its third reading. He then moved that the ordinance be passed, and as he expected a roll call showed all members present voting "no," and the motion was declared lost

Mr. Beadle called attention to the fact that a repealing ordinance could not be put into effect before the increased pay ordinance, already published, would have been in effect for a period of days for which policemen could draw the advanced pay and hence his action.

Before adjournment Councilman Knauber called attention to the "Old Graveyard" litigation which he said he understood could be settled now, and the city given a clear title to this property bounded by Church, Main and Sixth streets, so that it could be used by the city for whatsoever purpose it was desired. The city has lost this case in all the courts, the Supreme Court having decided that the ultimate title to this ground resided in the heirs, and that to them it would revert should the property be used for any purpose inconsistent with that of a burying ground.

Mr. Knauber told the council that the heirs would relinquish all claim if they were paid two-thirds of the valuation of the land.

Mr. Alexander opposed any such action saying that the city was better off under the decision of the Supreme Court, in his opinion.

A bill from the Newark Sanitarium for the care of Mabel Rice, who was taken there by orders of Safety Director C. A. Bigbee, after she had attempted suicide in the city prison by shooting herself in the breast, was ordered paid by the director out of the appropriation for that department

The special committee appointed to investigate conditions relative to the proposed subway construction, reported that it found it necessary to acquire the old canal feeder bed between Locust and St. Clair streets; that this could be done only by an act of the legislature, and that a bill has been introduced to acquire this property. Also the committee reported that suits had been prepared for the condemnation of property owned by the E H. Everett company, Mrs. Jones and Miss Mary Watkins, which will complete the acquisition of property needed on Clinton street for a new B. & O. freight house and terminals.

The committee's investigation leads it to believe that all parties to the project have determined upon continuous proceedings and that actual work will be begun not later than spring.

A letter was sent yesterday to G. L. Peck, fourth vice president of the P. C. C. & St. L. railroad, at Pittsburgh, and to J. M. Davis, vice president of the Baltimore and Ohio at Baltimore, Md., setting forth that the special committee was appointed by council owing to a belief that the work was not being continuously promoted, and the city was annually losing $6300 interest on the bonds, issued for the city's share of the cost of the subways.

The report was signed by S. H. Beadle, J. N. Pugh, W. M. Morgan, Frank Veheyen, John C. Krieg and T. E. Adams.

Impure water, dangerous for drinking purposes, is being furnished the citizens of Newark from the municipal plant, according to a communication read to the city council last night from the Ohio State Board of Health. The letter stated that the infiltration facilities were not adequate even at the time of high water above the intake to the filters, to furnish sufficient quantity of pure water and that "raw" water from the North Fork was being used which the State Board considers unsafe.

Another matter that was to come before the meeting was the ordinance increasing the pay of city firemen, which the mayor had vetoed. It was confidently expected that the legislation would be passed over the veto, but Solicitor Ralph Norpell gave an opinion that this could not be done until next meeting, as the statute provides that after the mayor "has returned an ordinance to council with his objections, council may after ten days," proceed to pass the ordinance over the mayor's veto.

Councilman E. L. Curry was absent because of illness.

The reading of the journal was dispensed with and the regular routine of business began.

The street committee asked for further time to prepare its report which was granted.

Service Director W. C. Christian submitted a report of the operation of the municipal water works plant which read as follows.

I beg leave to submit my annual report of the operations of the city water works department It is gratifying to see that the gross receipts are increasing, this in a measure offsets the increased cost of delivery of water I shall give you a detailed cash statement, plant revenue statement, and the trial balance sheet of the general ledger.

Engineer C. H. Wells submitted a suggestion that the property of William and C. J. Holland, abutting upon Eleventh street on the south side, east of Raccoon creek should not be assessed as much as other property for the paving of said street, as the creek ran diagonally through the land, which decreased its value for building purposes. Referred to law committee.

The annual report of Health Officer W. H. Knauss, a synopsis of which was printed in the Advocate a couple of weeks ago, was received and filed.

City Auditor Dodd, in a report requested by Council in a resolution, showed that patrolmen were overpaid in the safety department one to five days. The report says:

Physical Training.

College life is looked at by the ordinary run of people as a soft snap, a sheltered, protected leisurely life. It is thought of as a kind of intellectual Pullman car, in which professors and tutors pull their relaxed passengers over all the heavy grades of learning. Ye the college student can be strenuous enough for the causes that he holds dear.

He may not burn much midnight electricity. But if he is playing on a 'varsity team he will submit to a code of rules that the ordinary boy would call barbarous.

Looking over the regulations for a college team, it was noted the other day that the boys must be in bed at 10 p. m. Sweets, fried foods, and many other commonplaces of the dinner table, were cut out. Not many young men in business would thus limit themselves for the prize of business success.

Business failures are very apt to be due to physical causes. People can't stand the strain of worries and rush times. Just on the point of gripping that slippery and elusive creature Success, the coy and treacherous prize slips out of their weary grasp. The sanitariums are filled with business men taking baths and massage and osteopathy because their nerves went bad.

Of course people won't hold themselves down to strict rules of living. And a routine life with no breaks is not wholesome in the long run. But most young men are far too careless in these matters. They feed themselves as if they had the stomachs of a camel. They sit up to all hours of the night, taking pleasure in late hours, as marking them out for gay sports and young bloods. But that game can be played only about so far. It has its sharp limits, as they all find out. A little more of the spirit of the college training table would do them a lot of good.

A Sporting Event.

One of the big sport events of the spring will not attract any great crowd. There will be no cheering crowds paying $10 a seat for chairs in the gallery. But to a small circle of chess payers it will be a conflict of Titans, when Dr. Emanuel Lasker of Berlin, world's chess champion, will meet Frank Marshall, United States champion.

Instead of cheers, the officials will be frowning at whisperers who disturb the recondite thoughts of these masters. Most people try to play chess at some time or another. But their brains are not sufficiently comprehensive. While they had been looking only at what they could do in the next move, the opponent, who could figure out a dozen moves ahead on each side, springs the carefully baited trap he had long been preparing unseen. The average person wants a game in which once in a while his errors will be evened up by the blind hand of pure luck.

Dishonest Boy Question.

Every few days one finds a story in the newspapers about the dishonest office boy. The latest is the thieving charged against a $6 a week youngster in Newton, Mass., who is alleged to have robbed a trust company's cash drawer of nearly $2,000. Not often does the young dare devil get any such haul as that. But a great many promising and bright faced youngsters mysteriously disappear out of business offices after a brief career in which their crooked natures were demonstrated.

The average business man gives these boys too many chances. He takes it for granted that everyone is straight. It looks like such perfect folly to him to steal, that he can't imagine a nature in which any different idea exists. So it happens that immature youth are sent on errands with big rolls of money. They have easy access to the money box, and the coins prove too shiny for some of them.

The former generation of boys got the idea out of yellow novels smuggled into the house after dark and read in the haymow or under the desk at school. Today some of the movies publicly offer their constant story of crime. It looks easy as seen in the films, also as the boy sees the cash lying around the office. If no one sees him take it, he thinks he will be undiscovered. But he is not old enough to understand that thieves always leave tracks of one kind or another.

The boy who steels is a fool. Once he gets a court record, no business office will ever take him.

It is not so much the fear of loss of what few coins he could pick up around an office. It is that he has a yellow streak in his nature and could never be depended on for loyal service. When his boyhood associates acquire wealth and position, he will be hopping freight cars at remote flag stations, and serving time periodically in county jails. Keep straight, boys!

Railroad Statistics.

Edward Hungerford, writing on "The Railroad Problem" in Collier's for February 10th, says:

"We are just crossing the threshold of what seems to be an even greater period in the industrial expansion of the nation. Yet how are our railroads prepared to meet their great problem? In 1901—as we have already seen—they met it by an expansion of their physical facilities. But in 1901 the credit of many of them has become a rather doubtful matter. And this, of course, has been a serious detriment to their expansion—to put it mildly.

An analysis of the service, both freight and passenger, of the railroads in the year 1907, the last of the "big years" in railroad traffic, compared with that of 1914, the most recent year whose figures are available, is illuminating in estimating railroad credit today, or the lack of it. The passenger-mile—representing the progress of one train over one mile of track—is the unit of that form of traffic. In 1914 the total passenger-mile had increased to 35,100,000,000 from the total of 27,700,000,000 in 1907, or 25.7 per cent. Similarly the ton-mile is the unit of freight transportation. As the name indicates, it represents the carrying of one ton of goods of any description for a mile. In 1914 the ton-miles had grown to 288,700,000,000 from 236,600,000,000 or 22 per cent.

Time To Keep Cool.

(New York Evening Post.)

About all this there is every reason for the American government and the American public to try to keep a cool head. And there is no need for the world to be dismayed by the new German threats. They are not yet put into execution. In their entirety, we do not for a moment believe that they can be. German submarines may run a terrible course of destruction and slaughter. But that they can come anywhere near fulfilling the proud boast that England and France will be absolutely cut off from the ocean, and that the foreign commerce of the United States will be dwarfed to the pitiful measure indicated by the German note, is to our mind wholly incredible.

The allies and neutrals are not reduced to helplessness. And even if they have to suffer unutterable things at the hands of German submarines, let not the German government imagine that in any such way can the high spirit of freemen be broken. It were better to starve and sink into misery and die a thousand deaths than submit to a tyranny based on organized murder.

Trans-Atlantic Pipe Line.

(Popular Mechanics Magazine.)

An Irish manufacturer has prepared in detail a pan for laying an 18-inch submarine pipe line between the British Isles and America, which according to estimates, would transmit oil to England at a small fraction of the present transportation cost. As proposed the pipe would be made of steel ribbon on the helical tube principle so as to be flexible. The overlapping of the ribbon as it winds round and round itself would be pressed with asbestos twine. The tube would be able to withstand an internal pressure of 2,000 pounds and an external pressure of 10,000 pounds a square inch. Around it would be woven a cotton casing coated with preservative. To give the pipe longitudinal strength a stranded steel cable would be put inside. Twenty vessels would be employed to lay the pipe, each being assigned to a 150-mile section. The scheme calls for an outlay of $50,000,000. It is estimated that the transportation cost for 1,000 gallons for 1,000 miles would be about 50 cents. By tank steamers it is about $50.

Misusing a Weapon.

(New York World.)

Germany's only excuse for unrestricted submarine warfare is that the British blockade is illegal. Its plea, therefore, is based upon the doctrine of reprisal; but even here it is lawless.

Reprisals must bear a close relation to the wrongs to be redressed. If they do not amount to retaliation in kind, they must not in any case inflict more than corresponding damage and hardship. Nothing in the law of nations justifies wholesale assassination of neutrals in reprisal for naval operations, legitimate or illegitimate.

The United States and other neutrals have protested against certain features of the British blockade. There can be no doubt that it bears heavily upon Germany, but with one of the greatest of modern fleets that nation has not in thirty months made a single sustained effort to break the line that has strangled its commerce and reduced to rations its people.

Berlin's assumption that neutrals are equally interested with the Central Powers in punishing British violations of law is only a stupid prelude to what is likely to be a tragedy. It is for Germany at war to redress manfully and lawfully all the wrongs it receives at the hands of Great Britain. No neutral ships are sunk and no lives of non-combatants are taken by the British in the enforcement of their blockade.

A true blockade of Great Britain carried on in the same manner would be inconvenient to neutrals, but they would have to abide by it. What Germany has under way is not a blockade; it is not civilized warfare. It is wholesale and indiscriminate murder. A powerful navy at that empire's command is carefully guarded in home ports, while desperate resort is had to submersibles.

"The full employment of all the weapons at its disposal" is the phrase announcing the new policy of massacre. No matter how many undersea boats may be employed, the menace which they convey is not in their novelty or their power, but, like the dagger or the pistol in the hands of any other lawbreaker, in their misuse.

Spirit of the Press

Small Farms.

In the old world, France, England, Holland and other thickly settled sections, all of the farms are small. In France a man supports a large family on only a few acres, five acres being a big farm. If the men of France can make a living and money on such a small area, why is it that we over here do not feel like we are farming at all unless we have from 200 to 500, and in some instances, 1,000 acres of land, to scratch over?—Montgomery Advertiser.

Why Rain Follows Lightning.

Why does a heavy downpour of rain often follow a clap of thunder? Not, as is popularly believed, because the thunder jostles the cloud particles together into raindrops. In the violent turmoil between the positive and negative electricity in a thundercloud there will be places where the production of drops, by condensation, and their subsequent breaking up proceeds more rapidly than elsewhere. Hence in these places there will be more drops to fall as rain, and also more electrification, the rainfall occurring about the same time as the flash. We have, then, starting toward the earth at the same time, light, sound, and raindrops. The light, traveling at a speed of about 186,000 miles a second, reaches us almost instantly. The sound travels far more slowly—about 1,000 feet a second—but the rain falls much slower still. Thus we observe, first the lightning, then the thunder, and then rain.—Popular Science Monthly.

America First.

It cannot be doubted that an overwhelming majority of our people stand behind the President in his efforts to keep this country at peace with all the world. But it is doubted that a majority will indorse giving the German ambassador his passports at the present time. Let us consider America first, last and all the time.—Chicago Shoats Zeitung.

German-American.

The break with our old fatherland is at hand and on account of questions whose handling by our government sometimes seemed to us not entirely just and in keeping with the best interests of the future of our country. But we have duties toward our adopted country. Our allegiance belongs to America first last and all the time. These duties we must perform and will perform above all considerations regardless of what the future may have in store for us.—Omaha German Tribune.

American Resources.

The United States can make more clothing, blankets, shoes, guns and automobiles than Germany. It can supply vastly greater quantities of horses, mules, sugar, meat, flour and coffee for the use of armies. We have two-thirds of the world's cotton and Germany raises none. Obviously, the United States has all the resources to wage a swift and successful war, provided they could be quickly and ably mobilized.—Philadelphia Ledger.

President Wilson's Action Right.

President Wilson has taken the right course with Germany. He has severed diplomatic relations with the Kaiser's government, handed Ambassador von Bernstorff his passports and recalled Ambassador Gerard from Berlin. There was nothing else to do in view of the note of last Wednesday announcing Germany's deliberate intention, in defiance of all principles of right, to destroy shipping, neutral as well as hostile, in certain waters which she chose to declare a "barred zone." * * * —Pittsburgh Gazette Times.

Hopkins followed with a paper, on "The Land and Sea Forces" of South America which proved of intense interest. She suggested that these dreadnaughts which other nations had regarded in the light of white elephants to their owners might yet play their small part in the settling of he world contest. Miss ennie Roe gave an interesting array of current events, closing with some astronomical data furnished by Dr. Paul Biefeld of Denison observatory.

Milady's Boudoir

Shampooing Knowledge.

Blonde hair, unless shampooed very carefully, will darken with age. Egg shampoo is not good for light hair, for it contains sulphur, which will darken it rapidly. Oils also have a darkening effect on light hair, and should not be used unless absolutely necessary.

An excellent soap—jelly for blonde hair, is made by shaving a cake of castile soap into a saucepan and dissolving it in a pint of boiling water. Keep the mixture warm until the soap has dissolved, then pour the liquid into a wide-mouthed jar.

When shampooing the hair use one-half teaspoonful of bicarbonate of soda to each teaspoonful of the soap jelly. If you find that the bicarbonate of soda has too drying an effect on the hair, discontinue its use, for it frequently makes blonde hair lifeless and brittle.

Do not dry blonde hair by artificial heat. It will lose its sheen and texture. Rub the scalp briskly, but gently, with a towel to stimulate circulation, and then sit in the sunlight, separating the hair so that each portion receives its share of the sun bath. This manner of drying requires a much longer time, but the softness and sheen of the hair will reward you for your patience.

Brunettes should use shampoos containing oils, subcarbonate of soda and yolks of eggs. They are excellent for dark hair, stimulating growth and improving the luster.

A wonderful shampoo for dark hair is made of: The yolks of two raw eggs, slightly beaten, one-half pint of claret and one gill of soft water. Rub this liquid into the scalp and hair thoroughly and allow it to remain on for 20 minutes. Now wash the hair in the usual manner.

HOLLAND WOULD HESITATE BEFORE JOINING WILSON.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

The Hague, Feb. 6. via London.—It is known that Holland has protested strongly against Germany's decree of unrestricted submarine warfare but the press is silent as to the government's action. The foreign officers refused to give any details as to the course adopted by the administration.

The Nieuwe Rotterdamsche Courant, while expressing the fullest confidence in the government complains that the country does not know what the standpoint of the administration is. The Courante expresses surprise at President Wilson's statement in regard to other neutral powers following the example of the United States and asks whether the President's expectation is based on foreknowledge or merely supposition. It adds:

"We do not know the attitude or the action of our government on the question of ruthless submarine warfare but it may conceivably view matters from a different angle to that of the United States."

The Courant then compares America's abundance of grain, coal and steel with Holland's carcity of these articles, all of which she must import. A comparison is also made between Holand's contiguous position to Germany, with an open eastern frontier, as compared with America's remoteness from the war area and the paper concludes that the Dutch government must consider factors which do not exist in America and which may modify its decision.

Our Boys and Girls

The fact that your children do not annoy you is not sufficient. The fact that you find them the most interesting children in the world is not convincing, and the fact that they are exceptionaly bright and intelligent, has nothing to do with this discussion.

Children should be taught not to annoy others. Have you taught your boys that they are to wait for all women and all others to pass through a door or into a public conveyance? Or do you permit them to push and jostle their way through a company or crowd and monopolize the most comfortable place in vehicles?

The average boy thrusts his elbows against the ribs of the man or woman beside him and dives forward into the car at the risk of tripping the unwary or toppling over the weak, and if this occurs the word of apology is seldom heard.

Prof. Hertzog Praises This Perfect Laxative

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin an Ideal Remedy for Constipation.

In every family there is more or less occasion for a laxative remedy. It is to meet this need that Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is prepared, and that this combination of simple laxative herbs with pepsin fulfills its purpose is proven by its place in thousands of American homes.

Prof. F. J. C. Hertzog, the well known linguist, 2541 North Orianna St., Philadelphia, Pa., wrote to Dr. Caldwell that he has used Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin in his household with excellent results and that he and his family consider it indeed a friend in need, and always keep a bottle of it on hand.

Constipation is the direct cause of much serious illness and is a condition that should never be neglected. Harsh cathartics and violent purgatives should never be employed to relieve constipation, because the very violence of their action shocks the entire system. A mild laxative such as Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is far preferable, being mild and gentle in its action, without griping or other pain or discomfort; its freedom from all opiate or narcotic drugs makes it an ideal remedy for children.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is sold in drug stores everywhere for fifty cents a bottle. To avoid imitations and ineffective substitutes be sure to get Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. See that a facsimilie of Dr. Caldwell's signature and his portrait appear on the yellow cartoon in which the bottle is packed. A trial bottle, free of charge, can be obtained by writing to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 455 Washington St., Monticello Illinois.

REV. MR. DIEHL BEFORE ROTARIANS ON CITY GOVERNMENT

Mr. J. E. Brown, vice president and manager of Revillon Wholesale Ltd., Edmonton, Alta., who 25 years ago conducted a dry goods store at Granville, was a guest at the Rotary club luncheon today. Mr. Brown who is a Canadian Rotarian though he is still proud of his American citizenship and has no intention of transferring his allegiance to King George, gave an interesting talk telling of the growth of Edmonton from a town of 20,000 people to a city of 60,000 in a few years. The war has affected the growth of the city but has not affected its prosperity. One of every ten men in the community has gone to the front. The average temperature at Edmonton the past year was 38 degrees. It gets up to 90 in the summer and down to 60 below zero in the winter and yet Mr. Brown said that he has felt the cold weather in Newark much more the past few days than he does the far below zero weather in Canada as Edmonton is high and dry. In the summer the days are 18 hours long but in winter the darkness continues 18 of 24 hours.

The Rotarians voted to assist Supt. Hawkins in giving school garden prizes in 1917.

The speaker of the day was Rev. Grover Diehl who discussed in an interesting way municipal government. Mr. Diehl favors the federal plan.

In opening his address Mr. Diehl referred to the ravages of the "white plague" which destroys more lives each year than are slain in the field of battle and argued for "preparedness" against disease and for "municipal preparedness" as well as preparedness against invasion of a foreign foe. An outline of Mr. Diehl's address which was given this afternoon will appear in tomorrow's Advocate.

Mr. L. F. Carl, manager of the Newark National Gas and Fuel company, gave a five-minute talk on the gas business telling in a happy vein of some of the problems confronting the seller of natural gas.

Mother-Made, Quick Acting Cough Syrup

Should be Kept Handy in Every Home—Easily Prepared and Costs Little.

Mothers, you'll never know what you are missing until you make up this inexpensive, quick-acting cough syrup and try it. Children love its pleasant taste and nothing else will loosen a cough or chest cold and heal the inflamed or swollen throat membranes with such ease and promptness. It's equally as good for grown-ups as for children.

This splendid cough syrup is made by pouring 2½ ounces of Pinex (50 cents worth), into a pint bottle and filling the bottle with plain granulated sugar syrup. This gives you a full pint—a family supply—of much better cough remedy than you could buy ready-made for $2.50—a clear saving of $2.

The moment it touches the inflamed, cold-congested membranes that line the throat and air passages, the healing begins, the phlegm loosens, soreness leaves, cough spasms lessen and soon disappear altogether, thus ending a cough quicker than you ever thought possible. Hoarseness and ordinary coughs are conquered by it in 24 hours or less. Excellent for bronchitis, whooping cough, spasmodic croup, bronchial asthma or winter coughs.

Pinex is a highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, combined with guaiacol and is famous the world over for its quick healing effect on the membranes.

Beware of substitutes. Ask your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex" with directions and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money refunded. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

AHA! THE MASK IS OFF; ZEIGMAN IS TUCKER'S MAN

With the signing of articles for a match on February 22 at Auditorium George Tucker of East Newark last night announced the name of the wrestler "unknown" he is backing for the contest with Bowser. He is Henry Ziegman of Lorain, Ohio, who wrestles at about the middleweight limit and is said to be one of the best at his weight in the state.

Tucker and Bowser met last night and signed articles to meet at catch weights for a no limit match and both men posted $100 to bind the agreement.

The men had little trouble coming to an agreement on the condition, though Tucker did insist that the free list be restricted in this match.

Tucker's man is coming to Newark with the expectation of taking away the heavy end of the receipts and he wants as much cash in the strong box as possible.

Ziegman is a railroad man, being a member of the B. of R. T. and stands well in Lorain where he is known to practically every railroad man hitting that town. He has had a number of matches this winter and those who have seen him work say he shows wonderful endurance and strength.

YOKEL WON TWICE LAST WEEK; READY TO BEAT BOWSER

Fresh from two victories in the East last week Mike Yokel is ready to go to the mat with Paul Bowser at the Auditorium Thursday night of this week in an effort to defeat the man who copped the title and trophy from Joe Turner, middleweight champion. Turner also holds a record of having beat Yokel.

Last Monday at Lebanon, Penn., Yokel met Jack Ozar and the two grapplers worked two hours and 46 minutes without a decision. The next night Yokel landed in Atlantic City and defeated Henry Isilnger, the Austrian who defeated Joe Turner there last week

About the middle of December Yokel met Jack Carroll of Duluth and defeated him in 14 minutes. He got the first fall in 12 minutes and the second in two minutes. All of which goes to show that while the Utah middleweight is not a novice, he has not yet joined the has-been class.

Gossip From State House

Columbus, O., Feb. 6.—A bill to re-codify the military laws of the state to put the state department in harmony with the regular army rules as required by the national defense act passed by the last congress, prepared by Col. Hubert J. Turney, judge advocate general of the Ohio national guard is expected to receive immediate consideration at the hands of the Ohio legislators this week.

Under the terms of the national defense act the national guard, in order to qualify for its share of the money and military property appropriated by congress for state bodies, must bring up the membership of the state militia to the level of the regular army.

Senator Davis of Youngstown is expected to press his bill for consideration before the military affairs committee of the senate this week. His bill seeks to make enlistment in the national guard more attractive by eliminating it from strike duty. The present international situation, according to Senator Davis, emphasizes the necessity for strengthening the national guard.

Adjutant General Wood of the Ohio national guard is keeping in constant touch with the present situation at Washington and with the commanding officers of the first and seventh regiments. Should there be a call for mobilization of these regiments, General Wood says they would undoubtedly be mobilized in their home armories as it would be out of the question to mobilize them under canvass at this time of the year.

The lower house of the general assembly is expected to pass the Blauser bill, placing quail in the songbird class this afternoon. Representatives of the League of Ohio Sportsmen, opposing the bill have practically conceded its passage in the house but will seek to prevent its passage in the senate. Farmers in the assembly are for the bill almost to a man.

The Reynolds bill to grant presidential suffrage to women which passed the house by a vote of 72 to 50 last week is expected to be referred to the committee on federal relations in the senate today. Senator Berry of Allen county is chairman of this committee, which is said to be favorable to the bill.

Representative Mansfield of Jefferson county is author of a bill before the house cities committee which is of interest to police and fire chiefs of the state. It seeks to perfect a law enacted by the last legislature permitting them to appeal to the courts from the decision of local civil service commissions. Judge Mansfield says the courts in several counties of the state have interpreted the law differently and his bill seeks to clarify the law and provides for a definite method of procedure in such cases.

Bankers will be arrayed against building and loan association men in a hearing tonight before the building and loan committee of the house on the Canny and Parrett bills affecting building and loan associations. Building and loan men are said to favor the Canny bill while the bankers prefer the Parrett bill.

Governor Cox is working on his budget which he expects to have ready for the legislature the latter part of this week.

AMERICAN LOSES LIFE WHEN SUB SINKS BRITISHER

London, Feb. 6.—The British steamer Eavestone of 1791 tons has been sunk and the captain and three members of the crew, one an American, were killed.

It is officially announced that Richard Wallace, an American seaman belonging at Baltimore, was killed in the shelling of the boats which left the sinking steamer Eavestone.

The official statement says that the survivors of the Eavestone, who were landed today, report that the ship was sunk by shell fire from a German submarine; that the crew abandoned the sinking vessel and that the submarine then shelled the boats in which they took refuge, killing the captain and three seamen and severely wounding the second mate.

DEATH IS REPORTED.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Washington, Feb. 6.—An official report of the sinking of the steamer Eavestone and the killing of an American seaman, reached the state department today from Consul Frost at [illegible]. The ship was a provisional British collier.

Consul Frost's message said:

"Provisional British collier Eavestone sunk by shell fire from German submarine in vicinity of [illegible] yesterday February 3. American negro, able seaman, Richard Wallace, of Baltimore, killed during shelling of boat just after left Eavestone. Details not yet [illegible]."

Consul Frost's dispatch describing the Eavestone as a provisional collier leads to the possibility that the destroyed vessel might be classed as a warship. If at the time of the sinking the Eavestone was in admiralty service, no possibility of trouble with Germany on that score opens up. Ambassador Page has been instructed to send on further details.

The market became decidedly irregular before the end of the first half hour on the heaviness of rails, New Haven making a new low record of 35 3-8 with weakness in other transportation shares including Canadian Pacific, which fell over 2 points and Northern Pacific. Motors and beet sugar also were reactionary.

Unsettlement in rails affected the balance of the list for a brief period, many early advances being surrendered, but renewed buying of steel and active specialties brought about a partial readjustment. American Cans advance of 3 points was simultaneous with the publication of record earnings for 1916.

Bethlehem steel was almost the only recognized war stock to hold back losing 15 points. Trading fell away and became more irregular towards noon on selling of shippings. Bonds were lower on further declines in foreign issues. Government bonds also made slight concessions, presumably in anticipation of a new issue for emergency purposes.

Rails were under further pressure in the final hour, but war issues scored general rallies, some touching highest prices of the session. The closing was irregular.

Alternate periods of strength and heaviness attended today's dealings, recession in shipping being neutralized by gains in equipments and munitions. Sales were estimated at 900,000 shares.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Chicago, Feb. 6.—Sharp declines in the wheat market took place today owing to a considerable extent to news of the killing of an American seaman by German submarine gun fire. Opening prices, which ranged from 1-2 to 2¼c down with May at 1.72½ to 1.73½ and July at 1.47@1.48 were followed by a fall that carried May off to 1.70½, but later by recoveries which raised May to 1.73 7-8.

The close was nervous at ¼ to ⅝ over yesterday's finish.

Scantiness of rural offerings kept the corn market relatively strong. The weakness of wheat had only a transient effect. After opening unchanged to ⅝ lower prices underwent a slight general setback but then a material

Change in price appeared to depend more on wheat than on corn.

Higher quotations on hogs gave an upward swing to provisions. Buying however, was not active.

AMERICANS NOT YET ORDERED TO LEAVE GERMANY

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Washington, Feb. 6.—It was stated officially today that there is no change in the status of the some 2,000 Americans in Germany.

They have not been ordered by the United States to leave Germany, but have been advised of the break in relations that they may make individual decisions.

American embassy and consular officials up to the time they leave will assist any Americans, and after that the Spanish ambassador on behalf of the United States will take up the work.

STATE DEPT. WILL NOT INTERFERE WITH SHIPPING.

Washington, Feb. 6.—State department officials reiterated today that sailings of American ships to the war zone still were questions for private individuals and that the government had taken no action, although some statement of its attitude may be issued soon for their guidance.

It was also reiterated that there was no change of the status of war-bound German ships in American ports. Although the authorities have taken possession of them to prevent destruction or dangers to navigation, they still are German private property and will be so respected.

In fact, it was emphasized here today that all German private property in the United States is safeguarded by law. Many Germans and Austrians have invested money in postal savings banks and in other ways, and it is perfectly secure.

SWISS EXPECT WILSON TO ASK FOR REPRISALS.

Zurich, via Paris, Feb. 6.—The Neue Zuricher Zeitung says that President Wilson's action was the only solution of the situation caused by the German note. It remarks that the fact that execution would follow the German threat within a few hours left to the United States no time to protest. The Zeitung refers to Ambassador Gerard's speech at the dinner given him recently in Berlin in which he declared that German-American relations would continue excellent as long as the statesmen now at the head of the German government remained in power. The paper considers that this was a warning to Chancellor von Bethmann-Hollweg to resist the influence of Tirpitz faction.

The Zeitung regards the situation as most serious and looks for a declaration from President Wilson announcing reprisals that he will resort to in the event of Germany putting her threats into effect.

REPUBLICANS WILL SUPPORT SUBMARINE BILL

Washington, Feb. 6.—Republican senators in conference today decided to stand back of Senator Poindexter's bill for immediate construction of 20 fleet and 80 coast submarines at a cost of $4,000,000.

Amusements

ALHAMBRA.
Tonight.
House Peters and Myrtle Stedman will be seen at the Alhambra on tonight in the Oliver Morosco Photoplay Company's production of "The Happiness of Three Women" adapted for the screen from Albert Payson Terhune's unusual story.

Almost three hundred letters have been received from the patrons of the Alhambra theatre by the management since Alice Brady last appeared there. All were letters of praise for the progressive manager's act in procuring the then most recent feature picture of the star.

Now there is another story featuring Miss Brady scheduled for release and the attraction will be here on Wednesday and Thursday. It is called "A Woman Alone" and presents many novel effects in addition to the usual perfect performance always rendered by the star.

AUDITORIUM.
Tomorrow.
Many phases of New York life are strikingly shown in the stirring Metro-Rolfe production, "The Sunbeam," with Mabel Taliaferro as the star, which will be seen at the Auditorium theatre tomorrow.

The story deals with a girl who, because of her wonderfully sweet and generous nature, sheds happiness on all with whom she comes in contact and thus wins the name of "The Sunbeam."

"Gypsy Love."
Music loving Newark will hail with delight the announcement that "Gypsy Love," one of the few works ever to achieve the high standard established by "The Merry Widow," is soon to be presented its first time here at the Auditorium theatre next Friday.

"Gypsy Love," which is by Franz Lehar, composer of "The Merry Widow" was such an instantaneous and pronounced sensation when it was first introduced at the Globe theatre, New York, that ever since the whole country has been clamoring for it. So it was that not until its present—the second—transcontinental tour was booked that Newark could be included in the itinerary.

Meager preliminary announcement of special features give brilliant promise of the character of the production in which the melodious, romantic Viennese operetta will be presented. Its sponsor is the world famous impresario, Andreas Dippel, formerly administrative manager of The Metropolitan Opera House, New York, which is guarantee of tasteful, artistic and conscientious interpretation. Seats ready NOW.

"When Dreams Come True."
Philip Bartholomae's dreams seem to be coming true these days, at least in the material sense of pleasing audiences who are in search of something light, amusing and at the same time of sufficient merit to district attention from more serious things.

In conjunction with Silvio Hein, the provider of the music, Mr. Bartholomae has put forward in "When Dreams Come True," an interesting rival of the musical plays which have gone before, and he has managed to inject a satisfactory amount of the characteristics of his comedy essays. Among the producing line, the stage manager has likewise done well in costuming, in the selection of specialties and the settings generally, in addition to the main parts which are taken by players well enough known to draw on their own accounts.

"When Dreams Come True" will be seen at the Auditorium thearte next Saturday afternoon and evening. A popular priced matinee will be given.

"Lid Lifters."
A performance of comedy and vaudeville for which unusual claims are made will be presented by the "Lid Lifters" company at the Auditorium next Monday. It is said that in the arrangement of this show special efforts have been made to adhere strictly to the character of entertainment that, it is hoped will attract to this theatre the better element of theatregoers including women and children. Lively fun, spirited musical numbers, exhibitions of all kinds of modern dancing and unusually beautiful scenery and costumes are said to have been abundantly provided in this exceptional offering, special attention having been given to the selection of the principal entertainers.

"Uncle Tom's Cabin."
Kibble's "Uncle Tom's Cabin" will be the attraction at the Auditorium Tuesday, Feb. 13th. A special School Children's matinee will be given, the curtain not arising until 3:15 p. m. thus giving the children a chance to attend the matinee if they desire. This is one of the best attractions of the kind on the road and no doubt will attract large crowds. A parade will be given at noon.

"Twin Beds."
"Twin Beds," the excruciatingly funny comedy, which will be seen for the second time here soon, at the Auditorium comes with a record of one solid year in New York, where it was presented to the largest average audience ever assembled in a metropolitan theatre. It played for six months in Australia and is now in its second year in London, and negotiations are on foot for early presentations in Paris, Rome, Madrid, Petrograd, Tokio, South America and South Africa.

"Katinka."
Arthur Hammerstein's latest and greatest success, "Katinka," the musical sensation of the past New York season, is announced as one of the early bookings at the Auditorium theatre. This big musical play is the joint work of Otto Hauerbach and Rudolf Friml, the authors of "High Jinks" and "The Firefly."

The show is given two nights, Wednesday and Thursday, Feb. 14 and 15. There will be plenty of good seats as every seat in the house is a good seat for a minstrel entertainment.

The minstrel committee stands behind that statement and no favor will be shown to any individual. McLaughlin and Nelson Metz. The audience will act as judge and the couple receiving the greatest applause will receive a big frosted cake.

The ballad singers in the first part are Frank Ewald, M. J. Bacik, Karl Kuster and Robert Vogel. Mr. Fletcher S. Scott will be the interlocutor. The minstrel will be well worth witnessing. AMERICAN FUND FOR FRENCH WOUNDED.

Elizabeth Scarborough, secretary has just sent a letter to Mrs. E. S. Randolph, acknowledging receipt of the first box contributed by the Newark committee to the American fund for the French wounded. After offering congratulations the secretary says:

"This consignment went forward to our Paris Depot on the S. S. La Touraine, January 27th and I know it will be most welcome at the small hospitals which we are helping.

"We are most grateful to you for your contribution. I trust the Newark Committee will be very active and that we may count upon you for many supplies in the future.

"We have been asked to send small cases as the men available at the docks in France are not able to handle those of larger dimentions. We line our cases with oil paper and reinforce them with wire strapping one-half inch wide. The boxes we use for shipping measure 22x20. However, if you cannot send them in this way we will see that they are ready for the ocean voyage."

A WOMAN'S VOCATION

One of our modern writers has said, "A woman is as efficient in business as a man—when she is."

The reason why sometimes she is not so efficient is that her health may fail. But the wise business woman knows now what to do when attacked by the ailments peculiar to the so-called "weaker sex." That greatest of all remedies for woman's ills, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, has been freeing women from such ailments for forty years. Try it, if you suffer from such an ailment, and insure your competency and efficiency in the business world. —Advertisement.

SWISS EDITOR SAYS NEUTRALS SHOULDN'T SUBMIT.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Geneva, via Paris, February 6.—President Wilson's special note to the Swiss government, inviting it to join the United States in action regarding Germany, was discussed at length today at an extraordinary meeting of the federal council. The text of the Swiss report has been telegraphed to Washington and will be published here as soon as received by President Wilson. The Swiss telegraphic agencies say that the report that Switzerland will take charge of German and Austrian interests in the United States is premature, although the federal council will probably accept the task.

Swiss opinion continues to strongly support President Wilson's action.

The Journal de Geneve says in tonight's issue:

"We understand that the United States could not tolerate this threat, this humiliation. We believe that other neutrals should also refuse to submit to it. There is no reason why neutrals should suffer hunger because it pleases Germany to sow the sea with mines. No neutral government can submit to the treatment which Germany wants to impose.

"We await a further declaration from President Wilson but whatever it be the effect of his decision is to add another member to the entente who, though unarmed, is invincible and whose voice will preponderate in the future peace congress. It is a terrible blow to Germany."

OFFICIALS GET READY FOR WAR; NAVY PREPARED

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Philadelphia, Feb. 6.—Conditions along the river front, at the navy yard, the government arsenals and the private armament plants today assumed a war time aspect with every conceivable precaution in force to prevent overt acts by fanatics or by others hostile to the United States.

In semi-official and civilian circles patriotic and preparedness measures were everywhere apparent. Recruiting stations were overwhelmed with applications for service in both the army and navy. Scores of industrial establishments, including the Baldwin Locomotive Works, one of the largest manufacturing plants in the city, have volunteered their services to the government in case of necessity. The state's national guard according to Adjutant General Stewart, is "ready as never before for active duty." Mobilization plans, General Stewart said, virtually are complete.

One hour and half was added today to the working day of all civilian employes at the navy yard except those in the public supplies department. Plans are under way, it is said, to place the yard on a three shift basis, each shift working eight hours. The 3500 employes at the yard have been ordered by Commandant Russell to report any suspicious act they may observe about the government reservation and to facilitate inspection of employes entering the yard. Separate lanes formed by wooden rails have been constructed from each entrance. The yard virtually is cut off from public communication even personal telephone calls to sailors and marines being forbidden. Most of the warships of the Atlantic reserve fleet are said to be in readiness for immediate service.

Unofficial reports say that the battleship Ohio, as comparatively old vessel of the second line, is to be equipped with a huge gyroscope placed amidships to act as a stabilizer in heavy seas. When the device is installed it will be given a test off Cape Hatteras, and if successful, it is said, the stabilizer will be placed on other ships of the Ohio type, thus adding to their efficiency as units in the second line of defense.

The Pennsylvania women's division for national preparedness has tendered its departments to the nation in the event of war. It has four hundred nurses enrolled and funds to equip two field hospitals. The Pennsylvania railroad has offered the division 500 beds. The division has forty convalescent homes for sick and disabled soldiers and sailors in this city alone. A campaign to raise $200,000 for three military hospitals in Philadelphia is about to be launched by the southwestern Pennsylvania chapter of the American Red Cross. The necessary staffs for these hospitals are already enrolled.

MERCANTILE BUREAU HOLDS MEETING IN CHAMBER OF COMMERCE.

Despite the intense cold, a number of the leading merchants attended a meting of the Mercantile Bureau in Chamber of Commerce headquarters last night. A number of reports were received from committees that had completed their work while other committees were granted further time.

It was decided to revise the present rating system and by bringing it up to date make it more effective than ever. The matter of publishing a rating book was considered and a committee authoried to report at the next meeting. The report of the fire prevention committee was presented and indorsed. This report also has been indorsed by the membership council. It contains recommendations to the city council asking for improvements in accordance with the requirements of the Ohio Inspection Bureau to help reduce Newark from class three to two and one-half.

Because of the lack of time for preparation, it was decided not to give a "Pay Up Week" campaign the latter part of this month. The "Goods on Approval" committee was given further time to learn what is being done by merchants in other cities in abolishing this expensive evil to the public and merchant.

SENATORS SCRAP OVER CONFIDENCE VOTE TO PRESIDENT.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Columbus, February 6.—Senator Robert O'Brien, Republican, of Cincinnati, and Senator Virgil Terrell, Democrat, of Cleveland, were contesting today over who should be the author of a resolution in the senate giving President Wilson a vote of confidence in the present crisis.

Because his resolution was read first by the clerk of the senate yesterday O'Brien insists that his resolution be adopted. Both O'Brien and Terrell introduced their resolutions last night but because of the conflict both went over until today for action.

The Lloyd bill providing for an appropriation for $200,000 for the erection of a coliseum at the state fair ground for the national dairy show which passed the general assembly last week, was up for reconsideration in the house today. The senate reconsidered the Sprague amendment to the bill last night which provided for the use of free labor instead of convict labor in the erection of the building. If not permitted to use convict labor, it is said the board of administration cannot complete the building in time for the national dairy show in October.

Senator Mooney of Cleveland will introduce a bill tomorrow providing for a re-odification of the military laws of the state in conformity to the regular army rules.

IMMIGRATION BILL IS PASSED OVER PRESIDENT'S VETO

Washington, Feb. 6.—The immigration bill containing a literacy test provision and vetoed by three presidents today is a law of the land.

The final step in the enactment of the legislation by congress came yesterday when the senate voted 62 to 19 to override President Wilson's veto of the bill because of the literacy test feature. The house repassed the measure last week. A plea by Senator Reed, of Missouri, to heed Japan's protest against the language of the Asiatic exclusion section failed to move the senate.

The legislation is the result of a twenty years' fight in congress.

President Wilson once before vetoed a similar bill as did Presidents Taft and Cleveland for the same reasons.

The new law takes effect May 1, next.

FULTON TO MAKE NEW CONTRACT FOR AUTO LICENSE TAGS.

Columbus, Feb. 6.—Secretary of State Fulton, preliminary to the probable cancellation of the present auto license tag contract, yesterday requested by telegraph numerous companies to submit bids on 100,000 more tags and specify how soon they can be furnished.

The Detroit Stamping Company, to which former Secretary of State Hildebrant awarded the contract for this year's tags, has been unable to furnish tags in quantities needed.
